Today is an exciting time to be a Coastal Charleston CAP cadet. Following Maj. Brunson's deployment to the Netherlands, officers 2Lt. Ryan Yeager, 2Lt. Kurt Barnes, and 1Lt. Brett Pilkerton have stepped up to the plate to take up where Maj. Brunson left off.

With the leadership over the cadet's programs now split between three officers, the cadets will now have a chance to participate in three times as many fun and exciting activities. Camping Trips, Emergency Services drills, and Rocketry days are only a few of the activities currently being planned for cadets to participate in outside of the regular Monday evening meetings. A new structure to the meetings has also been developed, emphasizing Moral and General Leadership, Aerospace Education, and Physical Fitness, with these sessions being led by both senior officers and cadet officers, further helping develop our cadets into our future civilian and military leaders.

We are constantly recruiting new cadets (and senior members too!) and encourage you to come visit with us for one of our Monday evening meetings. If you have any questions, please refer to our FAQ page or feel free to contact us for more information
